The Department of Art and Music Histories offers courses in most major periods of the history of art and architecture from antiquity to the present. The research and teaching specialties of the art history faculty include Greek art and architecture, Byzantine and medieval art and architecture, early modern European art and architecture, 19th- and 20th-century European art, American and Indigenous art and architecture, South Asian art and architecture, Medievalism, and History of Photography.

Minor Requirements

The minor in art history requires 18 credits of coursework. Of these credits, 3 must be for lower-level HOA courses (299 level and below), and 12 must be for upper-level HOA courses (300 level and above). The remaining 3 credits can be fulfilled by a lower or upper-level HOA course. Students may petition to have up to 3 credits of art history courses taken outside the department count toward the minor.
