

WRITING SKILLS REQUIREMENT

Writing Skills (3 courses)

Students are required to complete the following:

The first of these courses is chosen from WRT 105 Studio 1: Practices of Academic Writing) or ENL 211 Composition for Non-native Speakers of English.

During the spring semester of their second year, students will take the higher-level WRT 205 Studio 2: Critical Research and Writing or ENL 213 Advanced Academic Writing and Research for Non-native Speakers of English.

Before WRT 205 Studio 2: Critical Research and Writing or ENL 213 Advanced Academic Writing and Research for Non-native Speakers of English is taken, students will take a Writing-Intensive course in a subject matter other than writing, a course that has been specially designed to give attention to developing writing ability while studying another subject matter. The list of approved Writing-Intensive courses will be found in the Writing-Intensive section. These courses that fulfill the Writing-Intensive Course requirement must be successfully completed by the student in the academic year in which they are listed in the Liberal Arts Core Guidebook.
