Description

The Minor in Private Music Study is designed for students from any degree program on campus, except those in the Setnor School of Music, who want to study music privately on guitar, drum set, piano or organ. Students who perform other instruments may petition to be accepted into the Minor in Private Music Study. The specific requirements are as follows: 6 semesters of private lessons (6 credits), 6 credits of select courses in either music theory or music history and literature, and 6 credits in any ENI/ENC/ENV ensemble or other selected music courses.

Admission

Meet with designated Setnor School of Music advisor prior to beginning the program.

3.3 (B+) GPA in one semester of lessons.

At least one full semester of private study on their instrument with a School of Music applied instructor. Positive recommendation in writing from their applied instructor.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate skills for functional and artistic self-expression at the appropriate level and the ability to perform a cross-section of repertoire

Minor Requirements

The Minor in Private Music Study requires eighteen credits of coursework. Of these, a minimum of 6 credits must be in School of Music applied lessons, 6 credits in select music theory or music history & literature courses, and 6 credits in any ENI/ENC/ENV ensemble or other selected music courses. 12 credits in the minor should be at the 300 level or higher. No courses taken for zero credit will count toward the minor.
